

Texas Revolution

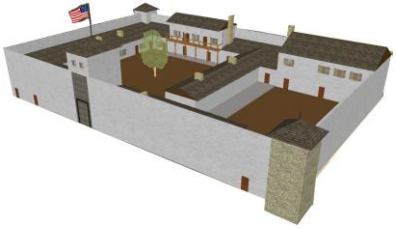

committee of correspondence	Parley	Siege	Transport
A local group formed to share political and military information with other communities. 	A brief truce between enemies so both parties can discuss issues. 	A military blockade of a city or fortress. 	To carry or move objects from place to place.
Campaign	Garrison	Bowie knife	Bombard
A military operation 	The soldiers at a military post. 	A large hunting knife used on the frontiers of the United States in the early 1830s.  Bowie-knife.	To attack continuously with cannon fire.

Fortify	Compound	Plantation	Strategy
---------	----------	------------	----------

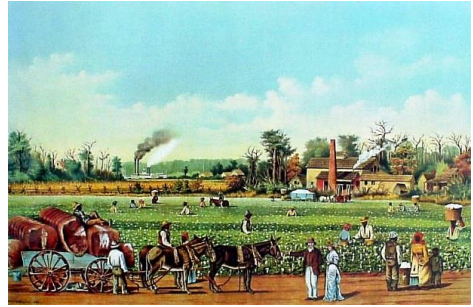

To strengthen defenses.

A walled-in area containing one or more buildings.

A large farm used to grow cash crops for sale.

A plan for a course of action.

Casualty	Duty	Commerce	Dictator
----------	------	----------	----------

A soldier who is killed, wounded, captured, or missing.

A tax on imported goods.

The buying and selling of goods and services.

A ruler with absolute power.

